Vehicle Strikes Parked Car and Front Porch

On February 24th at 12:29pm Beaverton Police responded to the report of a vehicle crashing into a home on 151st near SW Weir Road. Officers arrived and found a 77 year old female had struck a parked car and then veered off the road and struck the front porch of a home.

The vehicle did not actually crash into the home. She was driving a 2006 Toyota Highlander. The driver was the only occupant in the vehicle and nobody in the home was injured. The driver suffered a possible broken arm and was transported from the scene to an area hospital.

The driver is believed to have pushed the gas rather than the brake as the cause of the accident. The driver was not cited at the scene but will be submitted for a retest.
